

Real Simple Fill-in-the-Blanks Halloween Story

Word List:

ADJECTIVE _____

ADJECTIVE _____

NUMBER _____

A SPOOKY CHARACTER _____

EMOTION _____

ACTION VERB _____

NOISE _____

SAME NOISE _____

ACTION VERB, PAST TENSE _____

DIFFERENT NOISE _____

ADJECTIVE _____

ADJECTIVE _____

VERB, PAST TENSE _____

SAME SPOOKY CHARACTER _____

ITEM OF FURNITURE _____

SAME ITEM _____

CANDY NAME _____

CANDY NAME _____

CREATURE _____

ACTION VERB, PAST TENSE _____

SOUND _____

FOOD VERB _____

MEAL _____

Real Simple Fill-in-the-Blanks Halloween Story

It was a _____ and _____ Halloween night. _____ children were out trick-or-treating, when they came across an old house at the end of the street. The rumor in the neighborhood was that _____ haunted the house, and the children were _____. One very brave trick-or-treater decided to _____ up to the front door and ring the doorbell. _____—they heard the noise from inside the house but no one answered. He rang the bell again—_____. Still no answer.
Then he realized—the door was open.

He _____ inside, and the door made a loud _____. The house was _____ and _____, but the child continued in the house. His friends _____ away out of fear, but he was sure that there was no such thing as
_____.
_____.

In the living room of the house, there was a big _____. On the _____ sat a big bowl of candy. _____! _____! It was a trick-or-treater's dream come true. But when he went to take a piece, he heard footsteps in the hallway. Then, he noticed a shadow. It didn't look like the shadow of a human, but the shadow of a _____!

He _____ out of the house, tipping over the bowl, which made a loud
_____! As he turned the corner, he heard the creature yell after him: "Stay away, little kid! I'll _____ you for _____!"